*If this is not a place where tears are understood,
where do I go to cry,
If this is not a place my spirit can take wing,
where do I go to fly,
If this is not a place where my questions can be asked,
where do I go to seek,
If this is not a place where my feelings can be heard,
where can I go to speak,
If this is not a place you'll accept me as I am,
where can I go to be,
If this is not a place where I can try, and learn, and grow,
where can I just be me?*

In Memory Of...

The Earth Guardian Angel - A Letter

I wore my blue with pink poka-dots two piece
And you,
You had your radiant yellow shorts on.
We splashed around all day long.
In the middle of a one foot ocean,
Having the times of our lives.
On that bright and beautiful summer day.

First grade for me, and second for you.
You held my hand standing at the bus stop.
Reassuring me that it wasn't so bad.
In the middle of the bus we took a seat,
With butterflies in my tummy,
I was safe with you by my side.

Sixth grade for me, and seventh for you.
In front of the old, red warehouse,
Once again we wait together.
A yellow bus comes into view,
And I am lead to that middle seat.
With you by my side ,
I can conquer the world.

Ninth grade for me, and tenth for you.
We're older now, and I'm not scared,
But I cling to you anyway,
Reassuring you, that I still need your guidance.
You assisted me, to the assigned rooms,
And were there at every bell.

Now you've gone and left me,
And I must walk forward blind.

No one there to show me,
There's no one here to help me,
You're not here to guide me,
Why...

What we had was special,
And I shall not forget.

You were my Earth guardian angel,
And now you look down from above.

I can't wait to share good times,
The memories I shall hold with love.

In Memory Of...

Forever Sixteen

I know my life will go on,
I know for Lauren I must be strong.
Even though she knows I care,
She wants me to shed no more tears.

She was taken from us by the lord up above,
All her pain is gone, she's full of our love.
She's looking at us with her beautiful eyes,
She wants us to know, no one ever dies.
They're just taken up above, to a better place
That's full of angels, flowers, and lace.

I love you Lauren more than words can say,
And now I'm going to say goodbye today.
Goodbye to all the fun times,
And the sparkle in your eyes,
You'll never be forgotten,
Your spirit never dies.

I will do as you have told me,
Follow my dreams, and in my Eyes you will be forever sixteen.

I love you Lauren and will never forget you.
Love Patty

Each time I read one of these things, they are always about memories of great times and friends people had. I have had some of those memories too, but that isn't what I will remember about my time here. What I will remember is the names I was called, rumors that were started, and those who judged me while knowing nothing about me. Most of all I will remember what that taught me: that I am better than this place & most of you people. To all who had an open mind that knew me: I will miss you, to all the rest...it was your loss. To my family: I had a few rough times but I made it! Honestly, I'm not going to miss it here. I wish the best of luck to the class of 2000. C-ya SHS!!!

My first day as a freshman at SHS seems like it was only yesterday. I still remember meeting my teachers for the first time and getting lost while trying to find my classes. Senior year seemed so far away, but here I am four years later. Throughout my last four years, I have been lucky to receive the best support of my parents who were always there to help and guide me through many long and tough times. Also, I cannot forget all the friends I have. I will never forget all the good times we had together. Lastly, I would like to thank all my teachers who have helped bring me this far. These high school memories will never fade away.

It certainly has been an interesting 4 years. But moving on beyond High School is the first step into a greater world, where we will each shape our own lives as we see fit. I could not have had so much fun without the company of my friends, such as Pat, Seth, Luke, Mike, Chris, and anyone who happened to full that last seat at the table. I offer my gratitude to the band for all the support, and especially the LNBC. So here's to you Rob, Mac, Bobby, Mike, Matt, and Rich. You guys were my friends when it wasn't cool to be my friends. I leave you now with a quote from Ben Folds I have adopted as the Neri Theory on life. Take it as you will. Whatever and ever, Amen.

It's over now, so it's time to say goodbye.
There are many people and things that I would like to remember. Hey, remember when we went white water rafting and Phelan had his mack switch turned on? What about when his car blew up? That was pretty cool too. Remember when Train killed the Fatmerc? Chemistry with Fatboy and the flaming paint can. San-Kan, eater, or not.
Pre-game rituals. Melissa's scary dolls. I'm not a wuss. JV hockey. Lunch with LO JS the Christinas and Katy. Throwing food at BC BS TW and DR. My best friend Tarin.
Poison. Camping with Katsos. Getting the boot. Nico + Dots. 7th period bombs. Sweet do's. Community Blanket. No nukes. Big-
K. Hey baby. Millertime. My folks.

Wow 5 years has just flown by. It seems only yesterday that I started High School, and it's time for college. None of us will ever forget our years here at Saugus, and we take with us memories that will last a lifetime. I wish all of you good luck, and will never forget any of you. I would like to thank my parents, grandmother, and my teachers for putting up with me. The direction and wisdom that they have instilled in me will allow me to choose the best path for my life. I hope all of you strive for greatness, for your life is and will always be what you want to make it.

I was born in Seoul Korea in 1980. My grandfather named me "Wan-hee" upon my birth meaning that "Last Hope". With carrying love from both my parents, I had an easy going life. When I was fifteen years old, I talked to my parents about my future to study abroad so I went to Australia alone, and lived with my friend. I decided to study abroad, not only to expand my knowledge but also broaden vision. Then I came to Saugus High School as a starting junior studying in America is little different from studying in both Korea and Australia but I like the school environment and people around me in this school. Studying in Saugus High School will be the foundation of my future expedition. YEAH-YEAH!

The Saugus High Golf team with a record of 7 wins, 3 losses and 4 ties made it to the NEC championships in Cape Cod. The team played well on this two day trip, but due to the unfamiliar course, terrain, and competition the team ended up placing 4th overall and sadly didn't return home with the state championship for Saugus.

The Girls Varsity Soccer team broke a lot of records this year. They finished the season 10-4-4. They entered the post season in 3rd place. For the first time in Saugus High School history, the girls won a game in post season. The team was lead by coach of the year, Ted Moriello and tri-captains Tanya Angelone, Julie Pagliuca and Diane MacLaughlin. Congratulations Girls!

Boys Varsity Basketball

The Boys Varsity Basketball Team had a good season this year. They finished with 8 wins, 10 loses and 1 tie. The team was lead by new coach Steve Boudreau who took the place of former coach Pat O'Leary. Tri-captains were Mike Navarro, Tommy Kehoe, and Mike Lush, who was named NEC All-Star. Although the team had a good run for the tournament all season long, they fell short in the end. Overall, the teamed placed 5th in the conference.

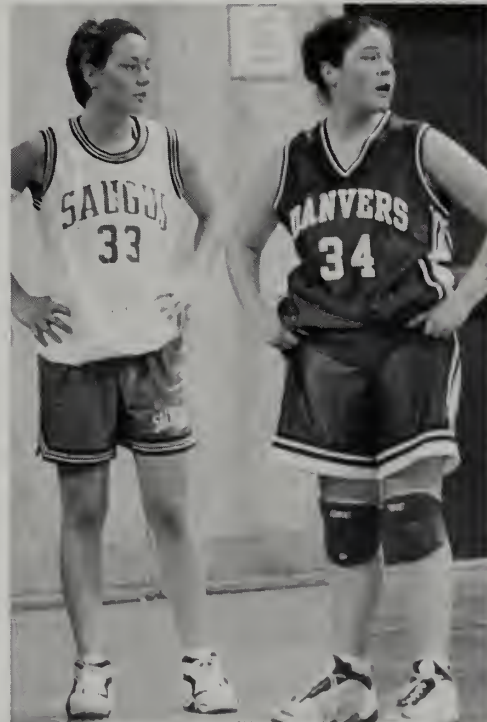

Varsity Girls Basketball

The girls Varsity Basketball Team played well all season. Their record was not a good description of how hard they tried. They had 4 wins and 16 losses. The team was lead by tri-captains Katie Allen, Jillian Ross, and Jen Salas. The Junior Varsity coach Leo Burke of last year became the new varsity head coach this year. Two quotes were able to motivate the girls throughout the season...

"Whatever doesn't kill you will only make you stronger" and
"Pain is weakness leaving the body."

Varsity Wrestling

The wrestling team was lead by Senior Co-captain Jason Katsos and Junior Co-captain Adam Magnasco. The team overall finished 4-12 and second in the conference. The team faced a disappointing season due to young teammates that are gaining experience towards a promising future. Although they made the tournament their lack of experience proved to be their undoing.

*Kimberly, you have been our pride and joy since you were born. You have become a loving and caring young lady. We can not give you a formula for success but advice to live by. Sometimes you must run with the wind, at other times against it, but don't ever let it stop you from reaching your goals.
Never mistake knowledge for wisdom. Remember the most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or touched, they are felt with the heart, so listen to our heart and enjoy life to the fullest. Never forget how much we love you and that we'll always be here for you.*

*All our love,
Mamma & Daddy*

Down every road you roam,
And may sunshine and happiness
Surround you when you're far from home.

I'll remember
All my life
though some have changed
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain
All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends
I still can recall

In my life
I've loved them all."

Always Remember the Good Times!
- Best Friends*

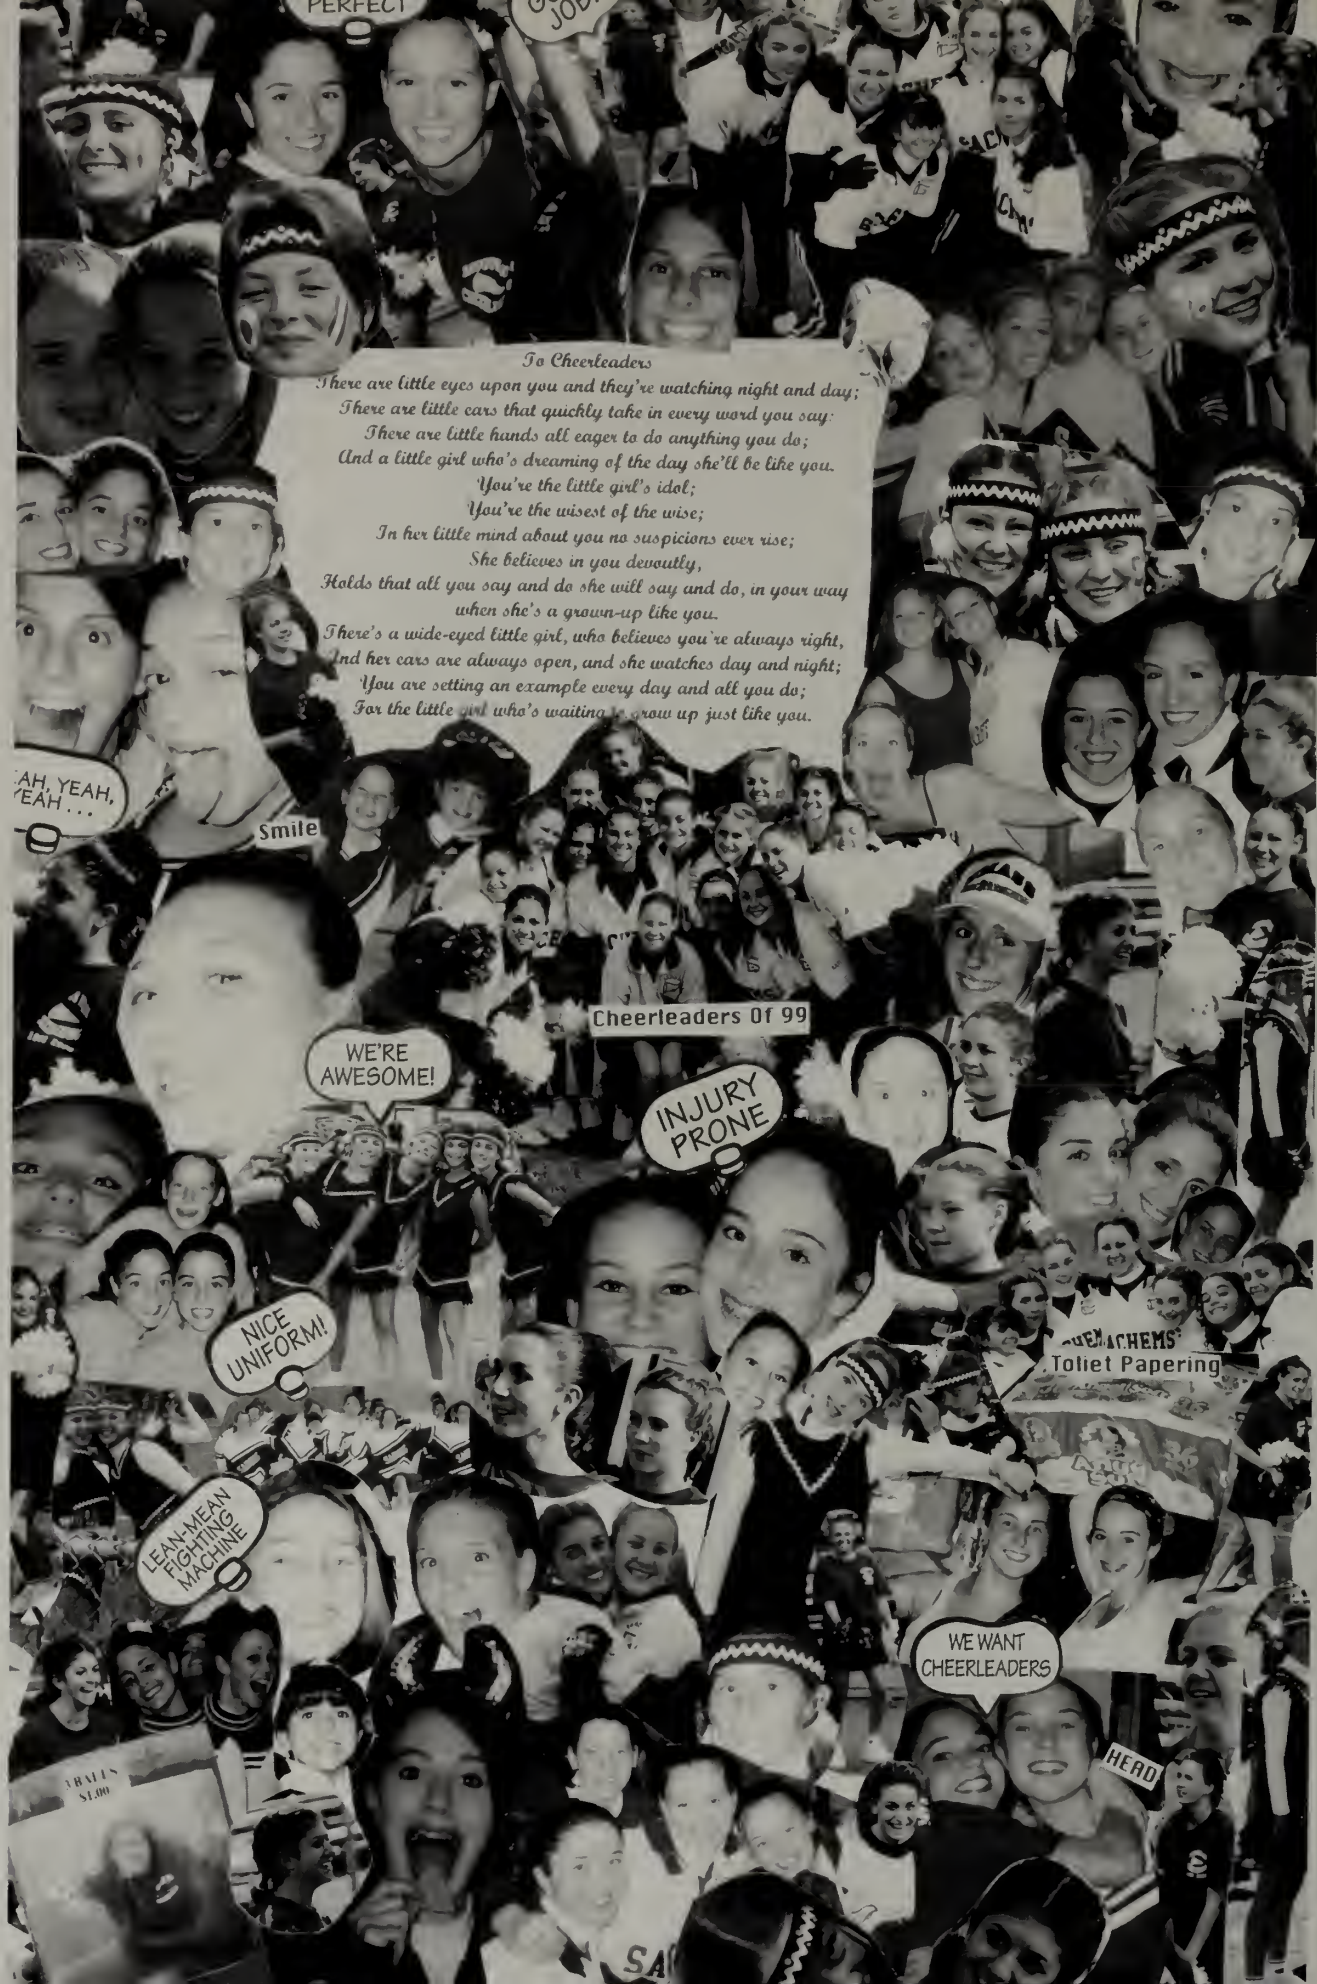

We've laughed.
We've cried
We've done some crazy things.
And almost died
But even when we fell,
We never really let each other down
We've hit the pits.

Yet sometimes we were 'as high as the sky permits
When we go our separate ways,
We can always look back to the good old days
So to my friends,

For every bit of advice you've gave
For every secret you've kept,
And for every laugh you've made
Thank You,
So very much

To Cheerleaders

*There are little eyes upon you and they're watching night and day;
There are little ears that quickly take in every word you say;
There are little hands all eager to do anything you do;
And a little girl who's dreaming of the day she'll be like you.*

You're the little girl's idol;

You're the wisest of the wise;

In her little mind about you no suspicions ever rise;

She believes in you devoutly,

Holds that all you say and do she will say and do, in your way when she's a grown-up like you.

*There's a wide-eyed little girl, who believes you're always right,
And her ears are always open, and she watches day and night;*

You are setting an example every day and all you do;

For the little girl who's waiting to grow up just like you.
